

Message from the Managing Director

Amidst all the vibrant hues of autumn - the sparkle of festivity in the air and the golden harvest under the bright sun, echo the immortal words of John Keats, from 'To Autumn'. This time of year is not only about reaping the bounty of the earth, but also about gathering the ripened fruits of our own inner wisdom, looking forward to the future opportunities and challenges.

Life is a journey, and what matters the most is how much we work hard to achieve what we dream of. I urge all of you to keep working hard, not just to achieve your dreams, but to become the best versions of yourselves. Keep investing and keep harvesting well. God bless you all.

These achievements bring us together as a nation. But while we celebrate, it's also time to look forward and think about what's next: a self-reliant, developed India where everyone has the opportunity to reach their full potential. The journey continues...

As a part of Adwitiyam, we have invited a group of underprivileged children to be a part of our 'Agomoni' celebrations. They were overjoyed to be a part of the event where our teachers and students put up a great show with their enthusiastic performances. Their joyous faces made the Agomoni program even more meaningful and joyous for us. We were happy to bring smiles on their faces.

Participants showed increased awareness, and the drive encouraged community members to take ownership of disease prevention.
